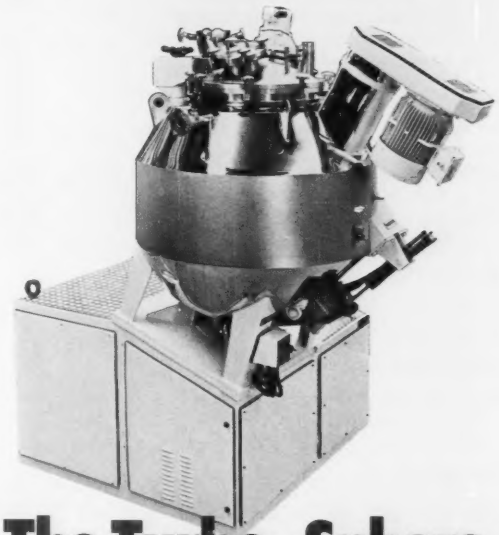
For pharmaceutical tablet production — one-step vacuum mixing, granulation and drying in a single vessel.



The Turbo-Sphere

Now there's an advantageous alternative to conventional granulation with a high-speed mixer and subsequent fluid-bed drying.

It's the Ross Moritz Turbo-Sphere — a one-step closed vacuum granulator.

Unlike conventional systems, it mixes, granulates and dries in just one vessel.

And there are no environmental problems. All solvent vapors are condensed and recovered; none escape into the atmosphere.

It's economical, too. Installed cost is about half that of a conventional granulation line. Energy and manpower requirements are significantly less.

Versatility Uniformity

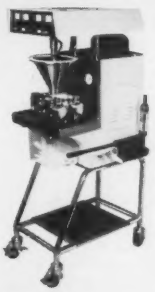
Versatile dry granulation plus uniform compaction with Vector/Freund Roller Compactors

Vector/Freund Roller Compactor installation at Premo Pharmaceutical Laboratories, Inc., South Hackensack, New Jersey.

The Roller Compactor is a versatile densification and dry granulation machine used for pharmaceutical, food and chemical processes. It compacts your product into a dense sheet that can be granulated to a desired mesh size. Free flowing granules for automatic packaging, compact granules for reduced package sizes and granules for high speed tableting or encapsulation are produced with consistent dust free purity and size.

Vector/Freund Roller Compactor features:
• Easily removeable compacting rolls • Single, hi-efficiency feed auger reduces set up and clean up times • Heavy duty construction features stainless steel in all product zone areas • Maximum compacting efficiency through use of unique patented roll design • Totally enclosed process from powder feed to finished granulation including dust control in granulating area • Electrical controls can be located remote from the compacting room to make clean up easier and allow for remote operation • Water cooled compacting rolls for temperature sensitive materials • Validation made easy due to modern GMP equipment design.

For additional information on our complete line of Roller Compactors contact your Vector representative or circle the reader service card number.



Vector/Freund Mini Compactor Ideally suited for the laboratory. Portable and compact, The Mini Compactor allows you to make test runs with only a few hundred grams of material, but simulates production run characteristics.

Vector Corporation manufactures and services a complete line of granulators, coating machines and rotary presses under the GMP and FDA standards.

Handbook of Animal Drugs

If you have ever considered entering the billion dollar per year animal health market in the United States, the first thing you need to know is what drugs are approved. And you need to know it again almost every day. The Complete Handbook of Approved New Animal Drug Applications in the United States indexes each of the more than 1,200 products and their approved uses according to the following:

1. Target Species
2. Sponsor Firm
3. FDA File Number
4. Active Ingredients
5. Brand Name

Plus you get a summary of each product's label directions, pre-slaughter withdrawal times, approval dates, and whether or not the drug is a "prescription only" item. Better yet, the Handbook is constantly updated to keep you on top of new developments.
